REFLECTION

We come to the Eucharist for nourishment, and this liturgy invites us to be nourished in ways that seem too good to be true! At no cost, as God's beloved children, we are brought into an everlasting covenant. We do not earn or pay for any of this. And to top it all, nothing can come between us and God's personal love for us. So, there is really nothing to fear, though it is natural to experience some fear on occasions.

In the Gospel, Jesus takes pity on the crowd, even though he has come to this place for some quiet to mourn the death of his cousin. He offers us an example by blessing and sharing the limited food they have, and every person has plenty to eat. Simply by coming into his presence today, we are nourished by his welcoming acceptance and hospitality. We become one with one another and with him. Our souls come alive.

THE MEMORARE

REMEMBER, O most gracious

Virgin Mary, that never was it known that any one who fled to Thy protection, implored Thy help, or sought Thy intercession, was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly unto Thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother. To Thee I come; before Thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother the Word

Incarnate, despise not my petitions; but In Thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen

Prayers against the Spread of Corona Virus

God our Father, we come to you in our need. We ask for your protection against the COVID-19 Corona Virus, that has claimed many lives and has affected many. We pray for your grace for the people tasked with studying the nature and cause of this virus and its disease and of stemming the tide of its transmission. Guide the hands and minds of medical experts that they may minister to the sick with competence and compassion and of those governments and private agencies that must find a cure and a solution to this pandemic. We pray for those afflicted, may they be restored to health soon. Grant us the grace to work for good of all and to help those in need. Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your son, who lives and reign with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. AMEN.
